McIntire has left us.

Business men advertise in the Times.

The new street connecting Russell and Glover streets is named "Orange" by the Town Council.

A fine dog belonging to Mrs. McNamara was poisoned and died on Tuesday.

How about that drain from Louis' to Harley's corner, on the South side of Russell street? It is sadly needed.

Mr. Wilkes Sawyer has bought a tract of land near Mr. J. W. H. Dukes', on the suburbs of the town.

A prize will be given to the lady wearing the neatest calico dress at the ball on next Tuesday evening.

A fine team of the Clydesdale stock has been imported by Messrs. Strauss & Street. They are powerfully built working horses.

Mayor Moseley's black horse, just imported, is a superb animal. For size, carriage and beauty, it is difficult to be surpassed.

As a cheering sign of progress, we notice that the young men of our town, mostly clerks, are rapidly acquiring property.

The last donation for the Firemen's Fair, of eight pair of shoes, from Caffin & Fair, of Boston, are for sale at Henry Kohn's.

Mr. J. P. Harley is putting up a neat and comfortable dwelling house on Broughton street, near his residence.

The first copy of the Williamsburg Herald, edited by Mr. H. S. Canningham, is before us. It is a neat paper, and we wish it long life and success.

Henry Smith, the colored man who was reported in our last issue as being badly burned, on Mrs. McNamara's place, has since died from the effects.

Rev. W. R. Parler will preach in the Baptist Church in our town, on Sunday. We understand that he has consented to serve this flock until a regular pastor can be secured.

To show the growing value of real estate in Orangeburg, a gentleman bought a lot a short time ago, which he held for six weeks, and then sold at a profit of about $600.

A colored man was arrested and put in jail on Saturday for having in his possession a stolen horse. His story was that he bought the horse at auction.

We regret to learn that Major Pou and Mr. Dan'l Cannon are still very ill; and that a little daughter of Mr. T. D. Wolfe has been severely afflicted with bronchitis.

We are pained to hear of the death of Mr. Friday, of Bull Swamp, whose illness was mentioned in our last issue. His loss will be felt by the large circle of friends and relatives he leaves behind.

Ephraim Davidson, a colored man, fell dead in Judge Glover's yard on Saturday, doubtless from disease of the heart. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was in accordance with the facts.

We are requested to publish the following appointments for Rev. A. Bloodworth for preaching: The second Sunday in March, at Providence; third Sunday at Court House; fourth Sunday at Two Mile Swamp.

We were happy to greet Mr. W. C. Crum of Rowesville in our office on Wednesday, having just returned from Washington, where he has been enjoying the scenes of Inauguration Day. He looks benefited by the trip.

A friend, who has been there, has furnished the Times with an interesting description of the Inauguration scenes, which not coming until we were about going to press yesterday, we will give in our next issue.

The "Perfect Washer" for which Mr. A. J. Jackson is travelling in Orangeburg County is highly recommended. It would be well for all who desire to save labor to give it a fair trial.

Mr. B. Livingston, an estimable citizen of the Fork, died of heart disease on Sunday. His loss will be felt in the community in which he lives. Our sympathies are with the bereaved friends and relatives.

An unusually large crowd was in town on Monday for a March sales-day. Everything went off quietly, and our farmers were enthusiastic in their preparations for the coming crop.

On last Thursday, during the thunderstorm, the lightning killed three horses belonging to Dick Glasengill, near the line of Aiken. Glasengill is a well to do colored planter owning two plantations, who deserves much credit for his thrift and energy.

We call attention to "The Twin Spring Bed" advertised in another column. It is highly recommended by the best men in the State as superior to any bed ever used. Let all, who desire sweet slumbers and pleasant dreams, invest.

One day last week a pair of mules hitched to a wagon, becoming frightened by the falling of a gate, near Dr. Salley's, ran into a buggy of Mr. Tilly's, causing his horse to run away and completely smashing up his buggy.

Persons desiring permanent or transient board are referred to the notice of the Briggmann House, in this issue. It is pleasantly and conveniently located, and we feel assured that all who patronize it will be pleased with the accommodations.

Lost, by Dr. A. S. Salley, on the Belleville road, between his house and Mr. C. W. Culler's mill, a set of obstetrical instruments. They were picked up by a party known who will do me a great kindness by leaving them at the drug store of Dr. J. G. Wannamaker.

The Calico Ball to be given next Tuesday night, is predicted to be a grand success. The fine Italian band of Augusta is engaged for the occasion, and the Committee will spare no pains in making everything convenient and pleasant. Parties within fifty miles of Orangeburg are expected to attend.

On last Wednesday, the gin house of Mr. L. S. Williams, of the Fork, caught fire from a lamp in the hands of a colored boy, who slept in the room. By timely assistance, Mr. Williams having two barrels of water standing at the door, the flames were extinguished, the loss probably not exceeding thirty-five dollars.

The Orangeburg Brass Band, at the suggestion of their indefatigable leader, Mr. B. Owens, have procured the services of Mr. Herndon, a professional teacher, to instruct them in music. We thought the music of the band could not be excelled before, but this step shows that nothing short of perfection is aimed at.

We are glad to see that the school of Rev. J. E. Kiver is in a growing state. Its steady increase speaks well for the faithfulness and proficiency of the teacher. We are pleased to note the advances in our Orangeburg schools. Why should we not equal any other town in the State in educational advantages?

The Spirit of the Times, the new paper started in Sumter by Messrs. DeLorme & Darr, promises eternal warfare against rings and "bossism." The Abbeville Medium, commenting upon it, says, it is refreshing to see a paper brave enough to declare war against the "machine." It thinks that the people are thirsting for emancipation from party slavery.

We have heard objections to the complaints against the bridge on the Railroad, near the Five Notch Road, which we published in our last issue. It is said that the bridge is amply wide, and that nobody has been hurt by falling from it. We know nothing about it ourselves, but we have only published both sides of the question as related to us.

The owl killed by Mr. A. M. Izlar, which was sent to Charleston by Mr. P. G. Cannon, has been returned most admirably stuffed. The bird, which, as we mentioned before, was a most unusual and beautiful one in appearance, is now quaintly perched on a rustic stand on the counter in the store of the latter gentleman, where it can be seen at any time.

A brass band has been organized in St. Matthews under the leadership of Mr. B. Cuttino, and an entertainment will soon be given to raise means for the purchase of instruments. We are glad to see that our friends in the country are not to be outdone, even in the towns, in the musical line. We wish the young band abundant success.

The Rev. J. F. Probst moved into the Lutheran parsonage on Tuesday of last week and preached in the St. Matthews Church last Sunday for the first time before his new flock. We congratulate the Lutherans on their good fortune in securing so excellent a pastor, and the County on the acquisition of so valued a citizen.

On the 18th of January, a mad dog, prowling through the Fork, bit a couple of dogs of Mr. B. H. Barton, and a number of other dogs in the neighborhood. On last Monday week one of Mr. Barton's dogs showed evident symptoms of hydrophobia, and adopting the safe plan, he killed both of them. The symptoms appeared six weeks after they were bitten.

The noise and clatter of the skating ring, over Way's store on Tuesday evening, the time of opening the exercise, was quite a novelty in our town. All parties being novices, many a mishap occurred to the great amusement of the spectators, but fortunately no heads were broken or limbs dislocated. It promises to be a popular diversion for our young people.

The work of improvement still goes on. Dr. Reeves, in addition to the Livingston lot, has purchased a portion of the lot on which Mr. J. W. Moseley's stable stand, adjoining the Livingston lot, which will give him a fine front for building purposes. Mr. Robert Copes has bought the eastern portion of the same lot, and we understand, contemplates building a store. Mr. Moseley retains an entrance of a few feet between the two, and will move his stables in the rear.

We are glad to learn that a Committee has been appointed to wait upon every young man in the town to urge upon him the duty of connecting himself, at once, with one of the two fire companies, the Elliotts, or the Young Americans. We second this movement most heartily. There are none of us who are not interested in the protection of the town, whether we own property or not. If we have not the property, we have the employment, and without property there could be no employment. Besides this, it is profitable for men to be organized, and not to live to themselves alone. We hope this Committee may succeed in bringing both fire companies up to one hundred members each if not more.

The municipal election of Branchville passed off quietly. The following ticket was elected: Intendant—E. T. R. Smoak, Wardens—J. D. Rhoads, J. N. Byrd, D. M. Reeves, John W. Walker.

Mr. J. D. Rhoads has bought the lot on Main street owned by Mr. Edwards, and is making arrangements to put up the largest building in town, for a store or hotel, the work to be done by E. T. R. Smoak & Son.

Mr. J. E. Smoak is about completing his dwelling.

The rice mill of Smoak & Byrd is undergoing a change.

The new Methodist Church with soon be finished. Rev. N. B. Melton will preach at Sardis, Methodist Church, on the third and fourth Sundays in each month, and Rev. McMillan on the third Sunday at the Baptist Church.

The doors to the Capitol on Inauguration Day were guarded by bayonets.

A colored man diving a dray was run over and killed, near Charleston, on Saturday, by a passing train.

A colored man was killed near Kingstree on Saturday, in a drunken quarrel with a white man.

The office hunters are already besieging the new President by the hundreds. There is a hungry set from the South.

Gen. Hancock, on Inaugural Day, was the cynosure of all eyes. He was paid as much attention as the President himself.

A damper was thrown over the inaugural ceremonies by the blustering march winds and the deep snow upon the ground.

On last Thursday afternoon, during the blow, the St. Mark's Episcopal Church of Chester, was blown down and entirely destroyed.

The Board of Trade of Columbia met on Saturday, and reported favorably upon Col. Thompson's plan for the canal. The people show a determination to make Columbia a manufacturing centre by their own exertions and with home capital.

D. E. Smoak has returned with the finest lot of clothing ever offered in this market.

If you want a extra fine segar at a reasonable price, call in at Dr. J. G. Wannamaker's Drug Store and we guarantee you will be accommodated.

Don't forget to carry your cotton samples to D. E. Smoak & Co. They pay the highest prices and pay the cash.

D. E. Smoak & Co. commenced hauling fertilizers this week. They will handle seven or eight of the best brands this season, and will sell them very low for cash, and cheap on credit. Farmers will find it to their interest to examine their stock before making arrangements with other houses.

Clothing! clothing!! clothing!!! D. E. Smoak & Co., are now offering their entire stock of winter clothing, also blankets and heavy winter goods at actual cost for cash. Should you need anything in clothing, shawls, blankets, jeans, &c., don't forget that you can buy from them 25 per cent. less than regular prices.

We take this opportunity to inform the ladies and the public generally that we have discontinued the sale of whiskey, &c. We keep a nice assortment of dress goods, notions, shoes, hats, fancy, and staple groceries, which are offered at lowest figures. Satisfaction guaranteed, and frequent visits solicited.

D. E. SMOAK & Co.

If you need a nice set of harness don't buy until you have priced them at D. E. Smoak & Co.'s. They have just received a fine lot.
